STUDENTS RECEIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

Six Henderson students from Nevada State College and the College of Southern Nevada were awarded undergraduate scholarships for the Summer Undergraduate Research Opportunity Program.

Samuel Bassong, Sierra Combs, Brenda Favela-Belmonte, Nicole Vita, Maya Zawlodzki and Kris Thanesjesdapong are set to work on an aspect of the Solar Nexus project, a five-year research project focusing on solar energy generation and its impacts on Nevada's limited water resources and fragile environment.
